FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK:

Dear Parents, Teachers, Students and Friends.

"I have a Vision of seeing my school as the premier co-educational school of Udaipur imparting, besides quality education, a well groomed, disciplined and cultured future generation which will be a boon for the society, inculcating in each student the right qualities and the spirit of being an Indian.

Good schooling can provide opportunities for developing specific talents such as writing, speaking, playing, truthfulness, honesty, integrity, sincerity, hard work and infuse discipline and patriotism.

Developing students as responsible citizens of the country is a challenge in front of every educational institution. Emotional empowerment, physical excellence as well as ethical and moral stability are no less important than academic intelligence. The staff of RMDPS have always tried its level best to meet these challenges and make our students the pride of mother India. This spirit of determination, faith and devotion have brought us victories year after year. The aim to achieve higher goals is the spirit which marks the beginning of the session.
